

CONTENTS

IN MEMORY OF THE DEPARTED

Beata Trojanowska – Professor Adam Bezwiński (12 May 1941 – 18 September 2025). 11

THE STUDY OF LITERATURE AND CULTURE

Anastasia Gulina – Belarusian Russian-Language Drama after 2020: The History of Trauma (Based on Anonymous Works) 15

Anastassiya Starodubtseva – New Russian History Textbook (2023) as a Tool of State Propaganda: Some Key Narratives 33

Marta Zambrzycka – Ukrainian Memory Landscapes. Paintings by Anatolii Lymarev and Anatolii Kryvolap 51

LINGUISTICS

Halyna Naienko – Manuscript of Matthew the Tenth, 1507: On the Determination of the Characteristics of the Rus’ian Recension of Old Church Slavonic. 67

Adam Fałowski – More on Ruthenisms in the Contemporary Polish General Language in Andrzej Bańkowski’s perspective 85

Floriy Batsevych – The Contextual-Situational Mode of Text Interpretation: An Attempt at Justification 103

Alena Rudenka – The Concept of ‘Homeland’ in the Linguistic Worldview of Belarusians: According to Survey Data	113
Svitlana Shyika – Surnames of the Rivne Region with the Suffix -s'k- Within the Context of Germanic-Slavic Linguistic Development	129
Nataliia Karikova – The Linguistic Landscape of Kharkiv During the Independence of Ukraine (from August 1991 to date)	147
Anna Skorofatova – Post-Truth and Popular Narrative: Semantico-Pragmatic Strategies of Transforming Fake Narratives into Memes in Ukrainian Society under Conditions of War.	165

REVIEWS

REPORT

PUBLICATIONS RECEIVED